

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Appellate Judge.
To the Republicans of the Appellate District of Kentucky: I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this district, subject to your action.
Election November, 1900.
Rep.,
Ed C. O'NEAL.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1900.

WANTED.—A wealthy, discreet, strategic man to run for Vice President. Apply to Mark Hanna.
A second to Bryan that the Kansas City ticket be given and Bryan would make the "Boy Trot" cheerful.

How Hoot Nuts has sold his interest in the Atlanta Journal and he will never be contented until he is in the business again.

The British government has sent bureaus to the United States in purchase of a very large number of horses.
That will put up prices well for another.

As to the regulation in history of every one of the present supporting the steel of the State offices. Succeeding generations will do them only to condemn them.

The British have lost two soldiers to the Boers in the war. Johnny Hull is paying dearly for Chamberlain and Rhodes. But he expects to get back off the Boers the money cost of the war.

Arraignment of the courts on the State constitution. The courts are now to decide that the no room to doubt that the Election law is the most monstrous piece of legislation ever enacted.
It is interpreted in the United States.

The House by a vote of 240 to 15 adopted the resolution in favor of an amendment to the Constitution providing for the election of U. S. Senators by direct vote of the people. That's pretty good, but the Senate—oh, the Senate!

SEANES HANNAHAN was present with a great many of the integrated Indian pipettes from the only deposit in the world—that in western Minnesota. The Speaker lists the pipettes now the Congressmen had better look wild.

ANIMAL DUE was trained from young in one of the of all professions and followed it with maturity. He is a delicate creature. He was elected President of the barons of the office-keepers will kill him quicker than they did Wm. Henry Harrison.

NORMAN SHAW of the rock could carry a confession for the people that property has arrived, and they will wait at its evidence in the Chickadee Indian. He is raising the price of marriage license for white men from $40 to $600 one year ago and now he is dead.

SEANES of the Navy Long has a Vice Presidential lightning rod. Man wants but little in a Vice Presidential war in Texas.
He plays the favorites in the Spanish war to suit folks' notions of fair play.

THE U. S. Supreme Court has set April 30 to hear the Kentucky Governor's contest cases. That will give Baby Beckham about two weeks in which to organize his party for capturing the State government, as a diplomat. He is effecting it in doing. If this decision is against him.

DEWEY, it is stated, is a gold-standard Democrat and also favors U. S. protection over the Philippines, with a reimbursement for the U. S. outlay in the islands.
That's a good philosophy. Dewey stands no more show for the Kansas City nomination than Eugene Debs for election.

INTERPRETATION was the correct name for it, after all. Expansionism would make conquered territory an integral part of the nation and subject to the Constitution. Imperialism makes it subject territory, to be governed without representation and without particular regard to the Constitution.

KINO LORAN of Belgium has probably read of Andrew Carnegie's opinion that "a man is disgraced if he dies rich" and has proceeded his real estate to his inheritance to beautify the country. Leopold is a gay man and probably has no fears in regard to blowing in his cash as he goes along.

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10 States, probably for indifference in purchasing too openly voices enough to elect him. Besides, Canada is not a man with a passion for the wrongdoing of any party. He is a good "common people" for political advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt should not be able to give a Jerry Rock, to say "I see my duty and done it."

WAS it about to break out at the Cornell dam, Westchester Co., New York, between the striking Italian laborers and the State troops. A sergent has already been assassinated. This is a bad year for domestic wars. A Presidential campaign being on hand, the Administration fearful of the political effect of intervention, and the demagogues keen to uphold the wrongdoing of any party. He is a good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

THE Senate Committee declared
against admitting Canada of 10
States, probably for indifference in
purchasing too openly voices enough
to elect him. Besides, Canada is
not a man with a passion for the
wrongdoing of any party. He is a
good "common people" for political
advantage. But Gov. Roosevelt
should not be able to give a
Jerry Rock, to say "I see my
duty and done it."

OLD FASHIONED LADIES', MISSES', CHILDREN'S, MEN'S AND BOYS' SHOES

EVER KEPT IN OWINGSVILLE. I HAVE ADDED AN UP-TO-DATE STOCK OF. You get everything new and the latest up to the minute. Give me a call before you buy. I can surely save you money, as my terms are STRICTLY CASH. (Gillon's Shoe Store).

Old Stand, Main Street.

The confusion will be at Frankfort has ceased grating for the present.
The Circuit Judge, who was reports as to what the grand jury was doing tighter than a drum.

The suggestion is probably correct that if the Kansas City convention should nominate another candidate and should ignore silver they would be lost.
The silver statue of Admiral Kitchener at the Chicago fair, the gold statue is supposed to be being given much of a fete.

The game between Britons and Portuguese is not so much a it seemed a while back. While Robert is recuperating at Hlum-ton, the Portuguese are being the country and occasionally gain a victory that gives England harvesting expeditions to put winter is just beginning, and it seems that the British will not not retrograde in the matter of lures and proper equipments to advance before spring opens again.
Meanwhile the Boers being native
and not having to get acclimated will have the advantage in sending small bodies of troops and supply trains.

The Imperialists idea is that Portuguese are not so much a for the benefit of the United States, and not for the benefit of Portugal, which is the real object of the national Republican Committee, explains it by saying that in the future Portugal, it may work producing and manufacturing territory and with cheap labor will be able to compete with the United States. So the right to discriminate against Portugal must be by the United States. It is a very same right asserted by King George's government gave the American colonists the right to be and win their independence. If the Hansa and Dicks are to bring this nation to adopt the same and condemn methods of George III. of England matters are in a very serious position. It is not make the blood boil in the people and the spirit of rebellion is as much as it is that makes Bryson as much of a nuisance as in 1896.

A PLAN to combine the wheat-growers of the world in a trust to control production and not sell at market prices for less than one dollar is to be attempted at Paris, France, this year. The scheme is being pushed by the United States and it will ask for more promising. If all hands around could form a trust in every grain of wheat produced it would shut the trusts and protectionism, but it is not practicable. The best result is to bring the wheat grower into the trust to the simplicity of Jefferson University, which is the only government to protect the people in the fullest enjoyment of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, leaving the utmost freedom consistent with the rights of everybody to the people of the world.
The United States is the best government the world has ever known.
The United States is the best government the world has ever known.
The United States is the best government the world has ever known.

ONE of Mark Twain's early jokes that he referred to in a paleoontological paper was a man sitting down to a meal at a frontier house where there was nothing but mackerel and mustard on the bill of fare. "But," protested the guest,
"I don't like mackerel." "Help yourself to mustard," then, handlingly replied the landlady. A good many folks find themselves in the same predicament in regard to imperialism. They detect imperialism, but they cannot do so as they
and non-imperialism as the matter alone.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil government for the island, was passed by the House, and has been signed by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in themselves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United States, whereas they have no political powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

AS an illustration of how the people are not in it in politics, a dispatch in a Saturday paper says that Mark Hanna had a conference with Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, and chose him for Vice President of the McKinley ticket. It is pretend to be accepted that Bryan and his managers will choose Bryan's running mate. It is time that the people wouldn't have stood for this in either a big party, but "these things" through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

Those having authority at the Paris Exposition are reported to have rejected the $100,000 gold cylinder (whether it may be) statue of Maud Adams—The American Girl. New Adams is to don a gifted young actress and a very attractive person, but she is refusing to bring a typically pretty girl, else all her portraits don't do her justice. Like the silver statue of Ada Khan at the Chicago fair,
the gold statue is supposed to be
being given much of a fete.

The game between Britons and
Portuguese is not so much a
it seemed a while back. While
Robert is recuperating at Hlum-
ton, the Portuguese are being
the country and occasionally gain
a victory that gives England
harvesting expeditions to put
winter is just beginning, and it
seems that the British will not
not retrograde in the matter of
lures and proper equipments to
advance before spring opens again.
Meanwhile the Boers being native
and not having to get acclimated
will have the advantage in sending
small bodies of troops and supply
trains.

The Imperialists idea is that
Portuguese are not so much a
for the benefit of the United States,
and not for the benefit of Portugal,
which is the real object of the
national Republican Committee, ex-
plains it by saying that in the
future Portugal, it may work
producing and manufacturing
territory and with cheap labor
will be able to compete with the United States. So the right to discriminate against Portugal must be
by the United States. It is a
very same right asserted by King
George's government gave the
American colonists the right to
be and win their independence. If
the Hansa and Dicks are to bring
this nation to adopt the same
and condemn methods of George
III. of England matters are in a
very serious position. It is not
make the blood boil in the people
and the spirit of rebellion is
as much as it is that makes Bry-
son as much of a nuisance as in 1896.

A PLAN to combine the wheat-
growers of the world in a trust
to control production and not sell
at market prices for less than one
dollar is to be attempted at Paris, France, this year. The scheme is
being pushed by the United States
and it will ask for more promising. If all hands around could
form a trust in every grain of wheat
produced it would shut the trusts
and protectionism, but it is not
practicable. The best result is to
bring the wheat grower into the
trust to the simplicity of Jefferson
University, which is the only
government to protect the people
in the fullest enjoyment of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness,
leaving the utmost freedom consistent with the rights of every-
body to the people of the world.
The United States is the best government the world has ever known.
The United States is the best government the world has ever known.
The United States is the best government the world has ever known.

ONE of Mark Twain's early jokes
that he referred to in a paleo-
ontological paper was a man
sitting down to a meal at a frontier
house where there was nothing but
mackerel and mustard on the bill
of fare. "But," protested the guest,
"I don't like mackerel." "Help
yourself to mustard," then, hand-
lingly replied the landlady. A
good many folks find themselves in
the same predicament in regard to
imperialism. They detect imperi-
alism, but they cannot do so as they
and non-imperialism as the matter
alone.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in them-
selves. Through the tariff discrimi-
nations and the Administration assume
the right to govern a territory outside
the Constitution of the United
States, whereas they have no polit-
ical powers except those granted by
and based upon the Constitution.

THE Porto Rico tariff bill,
including provisions for a civil gov-
ernment for the island, was passed
by the House, and has been signed
by the President. The principle
involved in this bill is the application of the McKinley tariff. It is
through the tariff discriminations
are rather ineffectual in themselves. Through the tariff